Office of the Chancellor

June 1, 2002

Dear Students:

I take pride in congratulating each of you for a job well done. You have made our growing university family proud. This yearbook clearly illustrates our university's continued sense of excitement in our accomplishments in the past year and is a keepsake of many precious memories for you in the years to come. I know that you will come to value the contents of this publication as symbols of your experience at WSSU.

Graduates, the weight of the legacy you carry with you is indeed tremendous when you consider the achievements and service of past generations. Your success here has well equipped you to carry that forward as you serve as inspiration for the hopes and dreams of those who will follow you. You have every reason to be proud of your achievement. As you position yourselves in the global marketplace, maintain your ties with your alma mater as you go about the business of becoming a productive citizen and an illustrious member of our alumni.

For returning Rams, this yearbook and the yearbooks to follow represents a history of the exciting and often defining events of your experience here at WSSU. We hope that experience has been both enlightening and fruitful. But as you look to the future, please know there will be many other experiences that will also become significant fixtures in your life. Your alma mater is keenly aware of the challenges the future holds for you and has dedicated itself to providing the preparation required for your success. When you return in the fall, come back reinvigorated and with a renewed appreciation for the gift of an education you are being offered.

The 2001-2002 academic year was indeed memorable for a number of reasons, the greatest of which was you. As you depart your alma mater to take your place in the world to serve, remember you will always have an honored place with the university family.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Harold L. Martin, Sr.".

There's a reason for each
heartache,

though we cannot see it
now,

And we grow with every sorrow, that
Heaven will allow.

Though we always seek the sunlight, earth is still "a value of tears,"

And only God
can help us bear
the burden of
the years.

Best Wishes To

CONGRATULATIONS to a very special "Daughter and Sister". You have brought nothing but love, joy, and happiness to our lives. Your academic accomplishments throughout the years have shown your determination and desire to succeed. Carry the same zeal and ambition with you as you follow your dreams. May all of your goals and dreams come true and may God bless you.

LOVE,

Mom, Dad (In Memory), Jarvis and Joseph

Congratulations
Mother, Grandmother and Aunt

Jannelle,

Words just can't express how proud I am of you. I've always told you that the sky is the limit, and you achieved just that with honors. I told you God had it all planned out for you. All you had to do was acknowledge him first, and you'd walk right into his plan for you, and you did it

Congratulations!

Love,
Mommy

Grand Pa

Words can not express what your accomplishments means to me. I watched you grow threth the years in relationships, disappointments and hardships. You have matured but your new life is just beginning. It won't always be easy but just look to the hills from which cometh my help. Read God's Word and stay focused.

God Bless You

To Laura Bonita Sanders our wonderful daughter, in whom we are extremely proud. Set your goals high for goals are the maps of life, with them you know where you are going at all times, without them you are aimlessly wondering and will only achieve by chance. Choose your friends wisely for they are a reflection of you and can help and harm you. Love faithfully and you will in turn be loved. Remember your family for they are there at your worst times for support and your best times for pride and bragging rights.

Horace & Deborah

Laura,

From the moment you let out that cry in "perfect pitch" at birth, there was no doubt that you were destined for a future that included music. You have never failed to achieve your goals, be they academics, sports, musical performance and community service. Cherish your memories of WSSU and retain the friendships and mentorship's that have developed. Many of these people will be your support system for years to come.

It is said that "Knowledge is power", and a college degree is a wonderful accomplishment. However, without ethics and conviction of moral values, it is useless. Continue to be a young woman of principle, and whatever you accomplish will bring personal success.

Step,

You have shown so many people how special you really are. You have worked hard to accomplish your goals. Now the time has come for you to begin and pursue the next path. You must reach out for the next star and achieve what is important to you.

"He would be proud of you!"

Hey, My Boo!
 I knew you were special from the day you were born and you continue to make me so proud. I know you'll achieve everything you want and more--just keep God First. Even though Nana is not here to see you graduate, always remember that she was so very proud of you and expected you to be the best you could be --with God.
 You can have it all !! GO GET IT!!!

Love,
 Aun-T

Christina,

Congratulations on your achievement. Words cannot express how very proud I am of you. Things have not always been easy, but you have continued to run the race. When you were a young child you set goals. As one goal was achieved, another was set. In the face of adversity and obstacles, you proved great endurance. Nana always said "Nana's woman can do anything she puts her mind to". Always remember Nana was always very proud of you.

Continue to run the race.
 Continue to persevere.
 Continue to achieve.

Continue to set milestones,
FOR YOU ARE THE FAMILY'S FIRST 4-YEAR DEGREE GRADUATE

Love Always,
 Mommy

Bless you Christina, I prayed to the Lord to let me see you finish high school and college. He has answered my prayers. Good luck to you and "I hope the Good Lord takes a liking to you." You're the best granddaughter in the world and I Love You.

In Loving Memory Of Katrina Ann Dickerson

To Live In Hearts We Leave Behind Is
Not To Die

Remember me on quiet days
While rain drops whisper on your pane.
But in your memories
Have no grief
Let the joy we knew remain

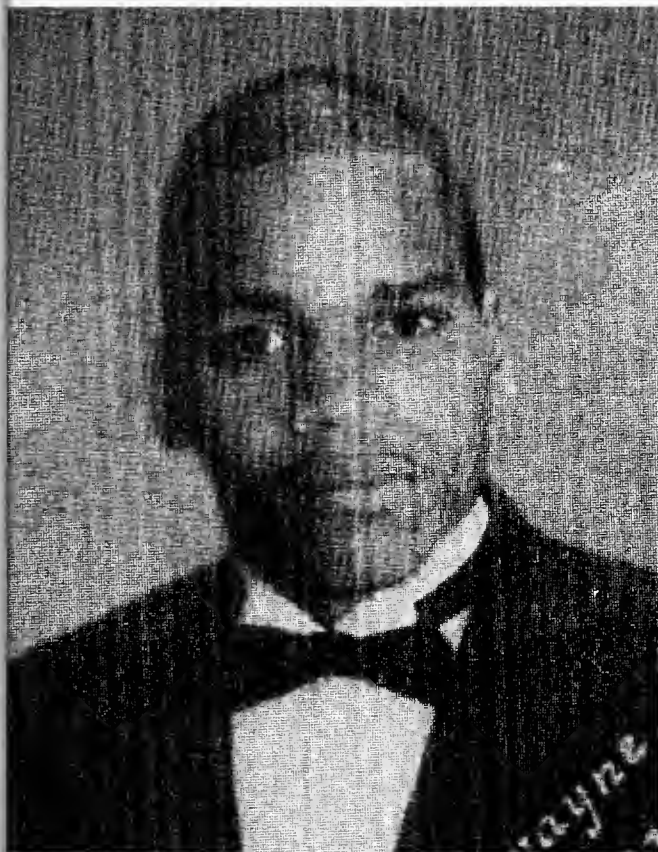

Remember me when evening stars
Smile down on you with quiet eyes.
Remember me if once you wake
To catch a glimpse of red sunrise
Remember me when Spring walks by.

Think once of me when you are glad
When you are happy, so I am.
And when your thoughts do turn to me,
Know that I would not have your cry,
But live for me and laugh for me,
And while you live,
I shall die.

In Loving Memory Of Dwayne Marqua Veale

The Christian Explorer

He lives throughout the world
Discovering and reading God's literature.
He has a delightful spirit from within,
And he loves to correct those full of sin.
Believing in his Heavenly Father,
Satan dares not bother.
What God has in store for him
Is more precious than a gem.
His traveling around God's unique world
Has been more of a blessing than a twirl.
Even though he has experienced the devastation

Of the world's evil and domestication,
He has journeyed to many churches and
Cathedrals
And they share a Godly mural.
Hoping and believing that Jesus is coming back
He keeps his minds, body, and soul interact.
